

Training:

- Diversity and Inclusion: To create awareness of diversity within the workplace while bringing about cohesiveness in teams from all different backgrounds and cultures.
- Unconscious Bias: In this course, you will identify the perceptual and psychological processes that impact the way that individuals interact with people who are demographically dissimilar from them.
- Anti-Harassment: This facilitated discussion gives leaders and Airmen a clear idea of harassment and bullying in a work setting and the important role they play in counteracting workplace harassment. This course will also provide critical knowledge on where to report harassment and bullying and helping agencies that can assist in the harassment mitigation process.
- Psychological Safety Training: Investing in the best talent is wasted if people are not able to speak up. This course will guide the Total Force through the process of psychological safety in the workplace to create a more creative and more productive work centers.
- Ethical Drift: An overview of Behavioral Ethics as well as tips for detecting when we are in a state of ethical drift and how to reground ourselves in our Air Force core values.