FAMILY ADVOCACY PROGRAM (FAP)

850-883-8616

The Family Advocacy Program (FAP) focuses on building healthy Air Force communities by preventing, intervening in and treating family maltreatment. The FAMILY ADVOCACY components include:

Prevention Outreach:

With a strong focus on education, training and collaboration to help strengthen military families, this service is a true resource to the installation. The Outreach Managers offer parenting classes, couples communication and relationship classes, stress and anger awareness/management classes on a quarterly basis. Additionally, briefings can be provided to agencies, units and the general public on topics such as child supervision, family violence, couples communication and anger management. The Outreach Managers work with leaders and agencies on and off base to identify resources for military families, foster working relationships, and increase awareness of family violence. Family Advocacy Strength-based Therapy (FAST) is a service that focuses on prevention counseling and is offered on a space available basis.

New Parent Support Program (NPSP)

this voluntary program provides support, counseling, and education to expectant parents or parents with children up to three years of age. Services are primarily provided through home visits. Educational opportunities and resources include parenting, breastfeeding, and information for expectant fathers.

Intervention Treatment:

The focus is on clinical services to military personnel and their families by identifying and treating incidents of child and spouse maltreatment or neglect. Treatment options include individual, marital and family therapy, consultation, case management, and crisis intervention.

Safety planning, advocacy, resources and information are available through the Domestic Abuse Victim Advocates (DAVA). DAVA Hotline 850-290-7389. To encourage early identification of domestic abuse and help victims get the care they need, the military provides options for both restricted and unrestricted reporting of adult domestic abuse.

Services provided to: Active Duty, Military Family Members, & Married as well as unmarried intimates

INSPECTOR GENERAL (IG)

850-882-5966

The Inspector General provides complaint resolution (CRP) provides services to all Military, Retirees, Family Members, and Civilians. The IG implements the CRP by:

- Indicating where commander involvement is needed to correct systemic, programmatic, or procedural weaknesses and ensures resources are used effectively and efficiently
- Resolving issues affecting the Air Force mission promptly and objectively
- Creating an atmosphere of trust in which issues can be objectively and fully resolved without retaliation or the fear of reprisal
- Allowing complainants to submit concerns completely anonymous
- Providing a confidential reporting option where identity is protected from release

The IG offers a safe, confidential place to address both personal and professional concerns. Whether the problem involves someone in your chain of command, or poor treatment by a Wing service agency, the IG can help solve your problems.

Examples of assistance:

Fraud, Waste, and Abuse or gross mismanagement; a violation of law, policy, procedure, instructions, or regulations; an injustice; abuse of authority, inappropriate conduct, misconduct, and allegation of restriction or reprisal.

The IG ensures the concerns of all complainants and the best interests of the Air Force are addressed through objective fact-finding.

Restriction – Preventing or attempting to prevent members of the Armed Forces from making or preparing to make lawful communications to Members of Congress and/or an IG.

Reprisal – Taking or threatening to take an unfavorable personnel action or withholding or threatening to withhold a favorable personnel action on a military member for making or preparing to make a protected communication.

Protected Communication –

1. Any lawful communication not conveying an admission of misconduct, violation of the UCMJ, or violation of other applicable statutes, to a Member of Congress or an IG.
2. A communication in which a member of the Armed Forces communicates information that the member reasonably believes evidences a violation of law or regulation, including a law or regulation prohibiting sexual harassment or unlawful discrimination, gross mismanagement, a gross waste of funds or other resources, an abuse of authority, or a substantial and specific danger to public health or safety, when such communication is made to any of the following (this list is not all inclusive): Member of Congress or a member of their staff; an inspector general or a member of the inspector general's staff; personnel assigned to DoD audit, inspection, investigation, law enforcement, equal opportunity, safety, or family advocacy organizations; any person in the member's chain of command; the Chief Master Sergeant of the Air Force, Command Chiefs, Group/Squadron Superintendents, and First Sergeants.

MENTAL HEALTH

- Treatment Services: The Mental Health Clinic offers individual and group counseling to individuals having trouble with personal or relational problems. Medication evaluation and treatment is also available.
- Educational Classes: The Mental Health Clinic offers a wide variety of psycho-educational classes designed to help individuals cope and function more effectively. Stress and Anger Management are popular classes that are offered frequently.
- Outreach: The goal of Outreach is to reduce the stigma associated with mental health. We can be invited to attend your unit's PT sessions, do an informal unit social visit and provide briefings on any mental health related topic.
- Suicide Prevention: The Mental Health Clinic can provide suicide prevention information to all personnel. The goal is to reduce stigma and train personnel to identify individuals at risk and intervene appropriately.
- Disaster Mental Health: Disaster Mental Health services are designed to help personnel involved in a potentially traumatic event understand and process their reactions in order to speed recovery and prevent later problems. We can provide education and consultation within 24-48 hours of a Commander's request.
- Crisis Intervention: Available for those individuals who are suicidal or having severe difficulty coping. Emergency evaluations may be available at a Commander's request for individuals they feel may be suicidal, homicidal, or unable to care for themselves.

Appointments can be made by calling the Mental Health Clinic directly or by referral from your Primary Care Manager. If a crisis occurs outside of regular duty hours, report to the Eglin Emergency Room.

MILITARY FAMILY LIFE COUNSELOR (MFLC)

Military families face unique challenges. To support military families facing these or additional challenges, the Military and Family Life Counseling Program:

- Provides short-term, non-medical counseling services to service members and their families at no cost.
- Provides psycho-education to help military service members and their families understand the impact of deployments, family reunions following deployments and other stresses related to the military life.
- Augments existing military support services.
- Can provide services to individuals, couples, families and groups, on or off installation.

With the exception of child abuse, domestic abuse and duty to warn situations services are private and confidential.
